CHIEF OF POLICE:

Laurie Brock

Press Release

Date: 08/10/2016
From: Laurie Brock

Reference: Drowning on Lake LBJ in Sunrise Beach Village Texas

Information:

On 08/09/2016 at approximately 7:45pm a 911 call came into the Llano County Sheriff's Department dispatch in reference to a man who was swimming off a boat. The caller reported that the man went into the water to swim and quickly had trouble in the water. The caller reported the man went under water and did not come back up.

Sunrise Beach Police and Sunrise Beach Fire Department responded to the end of Beach Drive on Lake LBJ where a search began for the man in the water. Sunrise Beach was soon assisted by the Llano Sheriff's Department, Texas Game Wardens, LCRA Rangers, Kingsland Fire Department and Buchanan Fire Department. Divers were in the water to assist in the recovery. The search and recovery was suspended at 11:30pm.

On 08/10/2016 the search and recovery began at 6:30am with the assistance of the above agencies. A Texas Department of Public Safety Helicopter was also called in for assistance. The recovery of the victim was made at approximately 11:30am.

The name of the male victim is not being released at this time as notifications to the family are still being made. An updated press release will be sent out when that occurs.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Laurie Brock".
